General Information

- All closed lab assignments are due at the end of the lab period.
- If you are unable to finish your work by the end of the lab period and have been in lab for the whole period (and signed the roll), you will be allowed to turn in your work before the following lab starts with no late penalty.

Attendance

A sign-in sheet will be placed at the front of the room for every lab. You must sign in to be counted present for that lab. Assignments from missed labs are due the day that lab was originally scheduled. If you did not attend a lab, work turned in after the lab session will incur a late penalty. If you must miss a lab, you can arrange in advance with the lab assistant to complete the assignment early and submit it without a penalty.

Grading

Closed Lab Assignments are graded on a 100-point scale and are worth 20 percent of your total class grade. Late lab assignments have a penalty as follows: Day 1: -10%, Day 2: -30%, Day 3: -50%, more than 3 days, -100% (with Sundays & Mondays counted as one day).

Submission

Lab assignments should be submitted according to the instructions on each lab. Most lab assignments will be submitted electronically.

Reminder

No tobacco, food, drink, or use of electronic devices that emit an audible sound (such as pagers, cell phones, radios, etc.) are allowed in computer labs. If you want to listen to music, please bring your own headphones.
