

CSU-Teikyo Study Abroad in Japan

May 16-29, 2012
Application Deadline: February 1

Cost: $3720 (excluding tuition)

Japan is currently at the forefront of numerous computing technologies including computer games, anime & manga, robotics, and communications. Participating students will experience first-hand Japan's contributions to technology by active immersion in the culture & society of Japan.

For more information, contact:

Drs. Lydia Ray / Wayne Summers
ray_lydia@columbusstate.edu
wsummers@ColumbusState.edu

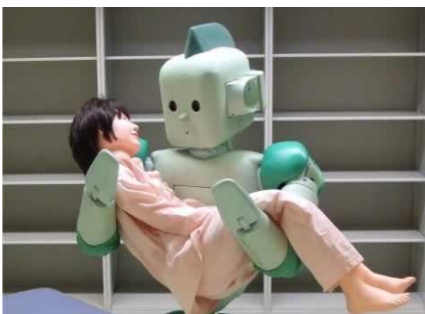

Center for International Education
4225 University Avenue
Columbus, GA 31907
Phone: 706-565-3083
<http://cie.columbusstate.edu/>

Course Offerings (3 Hours):

- ❖ Computer Science 2555
- ❖ Computer Science 5555*
- ❖ Interdisciplinary Studies 5555

*Upper level Computer Science students only

Planned excursions include:

- Suginami Animation Museum
- Kawada Industry (Mechatronics Division)
- Honda Collection Hall (home of Asimo)
- NHK Science and Technology Research Labs (developer of Super HiVision)
- Nikko Edo-mura
- Sony Building

Visit our website for more information: <http://csc.columbusstate.edu/summers/NOTES/5555-japan/>